

CONDITIONS ABOUT THE FEES

Who is eligible for reduced admission fee?

- People aged from 16 to 29 years
- People aged 65 and over
- Unemployed people and holders of the targeta rosa reduïda ("Reduced Pink Card")
- Families with a maximum of two accompanying adults, providing one is the father, the mother or the legal guardian. There must be at least one member under 16 years
- Holders of the família nombrosa large family card
- Holders of the família monoparental single parent family card
- Holders of the Biblioteques de Barcelona library membership card
- Groups of ten or more people

In all cases, accreditation must be provided to prove the right to reduced admission prices.

Free admission

- Minors below 16 years
- Members of the International Council of Museums (ICOM)
- Members of the Associació de Museòlegs de Catalunya (Association of Museologists of Catalonia)
- Professional tourist guides exercising their profession
- Formal education teachers
- Holders of the targeta rosa gratuïta ("Free Pink Card")
- Holders of the metropolitan pass for carers of people with disabilities
- Holders of the Generalitat accreditation disability Card
- Journalists
- Holders of the BCN Card
- Registered people in "Gaudir més," with free access to the permanent exhibitions of the Museu de Ciències Naturals.

In all cases, accreditation must be provided to prove the right to reduced admission prices.

Promotions

Free visits by appointment can be arranged for:

- Study groups during school times, morning or afternoon. Advance applications must be made to the Activities Department of Museum
- Groups from associations and not-for-profit organisations that meet any of the following requirements:
 - Associations and organisations linked to the territory covered by the museum or centre
 - Associations and organisations that endorse the Citizen Agreement for an Inclusive Barcelona whose work is dedicated particularly to social inclusion
 - Educational associations and organisations linked to the specialities of the collections at the museum or centre

- Groups of people taking part at congresses of particular importance in Barcelona, in accordance with the annual list published by Consorci de Turisme de Barcelona (Barcelona Tourism Consortium)

For holders of a valid bus turístic tourist bus ticket, a 20% discount on the normal admission price, according to current agreement:

- Combined admission fee, Museu de Ciències Naturals – Jardí Botànic: €5.60
- Jardí Botànic: €2.80